

Minnesota Fathers & Families Network Bill Tracking 2009 – Updated April 22, 2009

Description	Senate File # & Current Action	House File # & Current Action	Why MFFN is tracking
-------------	-----------------------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------

MFFN is tracking bills that would affect fathers or fatherhood professionals. This is not an exhaustive list nor does tracking the bill imply MFFN's endorsement or opposition, except where it is indicated that the legislation directly relates to one of MFFN's approved public policy agenda items for 2009. Please contact Melissa Froehle, Policy and Program Director at MFFN, at (651) 222-7432 or mfroehle@mnfathers.org with any questions.

<Language in bold indicates changes since our last bill tracking was updated. Language in red indicates legislation that has meet committee deadlines and is still “alive” at this point.>

Provides for a new base period for calculating unemployment benefits; providing for a limited extension of benefits	SF4/HF4/Passed both houses. Presented to Governor and signed by Gov. 1/29/09. House research summary: Base period. Provides that benefits may be calculated on either the last four completed calendar quarters or the first four of the last five completed calendar quarter before the effective date of the applicant's application for unemployment benefits, whichever yields the higher amount of wage credits for the applicant. This change is effective for applications filed on or after July 1, 2009. Special emergency benefits. Provides state emergency UI benefits to applicants that don't qualify for federal extended benefits because they do not meet the federal minimum earnings requirement. This section is effective the Sunday following final enactment and expires June 30, 2010.	Would help persons who are receiving unemployment benefits - help contribute to economic stability for fathers and families.
